

Consumers are entitled to be free from telemarketers if they choose. Further, special interest groups should not be able to determine policies of federal agencies. Leave the "No-call List" alone.